MESSAGE

I extend my warm greetings and best wishes to our community on the joyous occasion of the inauguration of the project to establish Sri Guruvayurappan Temple in Houston, inspired by the renowned Sri Guruvayurappan Temple in Kerala, celebrations for which are being held from May 21-23, 2010.

India, the world's largest democracy, is a multi-religious, multi-cultural and multi-lingual society. Places of worship representing different religions and faiths of India symbolize our country's rich diversity and our unity derived from shared belief in universal values of peace, tolerance, mutual respect and selfless service. The project to set up Sri Guruvayurappan Temple is yet another initiative by our versatile and vibrant community in Greater Houston to promote the universal values of India's glorious civilization.
